Course 1A, Medical Finnish basics includes:

Course 1A – Suomea sairaalaympäristössä

Course 1A is a language course for medical professionals. It begins with the basics of the Finnish, meaning you can participate in the course having never studied before. The course lasts for 6.5 weeks and is part independent study and part guided learning with a teacher. The study materials are accessible from our online learning platform and independent study is 15 hours per week. The 75-minute lessons are delivered remotely twice a week via Zoom and there are 13 total.

On the course, we develop all of the language skill areas: reading, writing, listening and speaking. Additionally, we'll learn different topics vocabulary and grammar. The course is designed for healthcare professionals and as such introduces situational language use in the field at a basic level. The target level for this course is CEFR A1 or YKI 1.

The student must commit to studying independently and participation in the Zoom lessons.

Price 495 € / student

Payment must be received a week before the courses starting date.

Why take a Medical Finnish course?

- Applying to study on general Finnish language courses which could be oversubscribed may lead to long wait times and large study groups where getting individual assistance could prove difficult.
- Although medical vocabulary isn't difficult to find, discovering the right resources for learning it's proper usage through examples in healthcare scenarios is far more challenging.
- Having visiting lecturers from the medical field can help you keep focused on your goals in addition to instruction on creating an effective and appealing resume to maximize your employment possibilities.

Further information about the courses

Our courses are tailored for those in the medical field preparing to practice medicine in Finland. We support your learning through online lessons and study materials on our learning platform, while you develop your language skills to pass the intermediate YKI test. Professionals in the fields of nursing and dentistry can also benefit from our courses, which in addition to the necessary vocabulary and grammar, include medical terminology, guidance for improving patient interaction, and information about the Finnish healthcare system.

What's most important is your motivation to succeed.

Additional group lessons

Additional lessons can be provided as required for groups of two, four or six students. The time, amount and subject will be agreed separately.
